- Email: nessadmin@nesssuper.com.au
- Freecall: 1800 022 067

The relevant parts of this form must be fully completed before a Lump Sum Withdrawal (Commutation) from your pension can be paid.
Some legal restrictions to withdrawal payments apply:

Transition to Retirement pensions

- To access only unrestricted non-preserved funds;
- To rollover your account to another pension product;
- To rollover your account to a superannuation fund;
- To make a payment split under family law;
- To release benefits following a successful request for payment on financial Hardship or Compassionate grounds.

All pensions

To receive a total payment, you must have received at least your pro-rata minimum pension payment for the current financial year and for partial payments, there must be enough remaining in your account to make your pro-rata minimum payment for the year.

if this is not the case, part of your withdrawal must be paid as a pension payment. Where the total benefit owing is withdrawn, the Trustee is required to pay the minimum pension amount for the remainder of the year.

Certified proof of identity

All copied pages of ORIGINAL proof of identification documents (including any linking documents) need to be certified as true copies by an authorised person (see below).

The following can certify copies of the originals as true and correct copies:

- a permanent employee of Australia Post with five or more years of continuous service
- a finance company officer with five or more years of continuous service (with one or more finance companies)
- an officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL), having five or more years of continuous service with one or more licensees
- a notary public officer
- a police officer
- a registrar or deputy registrar of a court
- a Justice of the Peace
- a person enrolled on the roll of a State or Territory Supreme Court or the High Court of Australia as a legal practitioner
- an Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer
- a judge of a court
- a magistrate, or
- a Chief Executive Officer of a Commonwealth court.

Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names.

The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

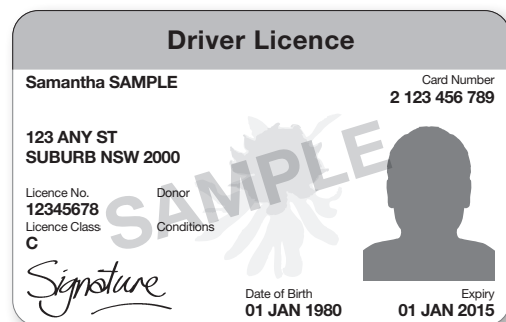

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office
Signed on behalf of the applicant	Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney

Example of how to certify identification

- 1 Take a photocopy of both sides of the original document (see list of documents above).
- 2 Take the photocopy and the original document(s) to an authorised person.
- 3 The authorised person should state on the front side of each copy: 'This is a true and correct copy of the original.'

The authorised person should write on each copy their:

- full name;
- qualification;
- registration number (if applicable);
- date; and
- signature.

This is a true and correct copy of the original
