

Financial Services Guide (FSG)

Date of preparation: 1 July 2019

This FSG is designed to assist you in deciding whether to use any of the services offered in this guide. It also contains information about remuneration that may be paid to the financial services licensee and other relevant persons in relation to the services offered, as well as information on how complaints against the financial services licensee are dealt with. If you decide to use our product(s), you will also be provided with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), which contains the key features and conditions of the products that we provide. The purpose of the PDS is to disclose all of the information reasonably required to enable you to determine whether the product is appropriate for you.

General Advice Warning: This brochure and any information that you receive from The Superannuation Clearing House Pty Limited is prepared without taking account of your objectives, financial situation or needs. Because of this, it is important for you to consider the appropriateness of any information and/or advice received having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs. You should obtain and take into account the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and consider seeking professional financial, taxation and/or legal advice, before you make any investment decision.

QUESTIONS

ANSWERS

Information about the remuneration (including commission) or other benefits, attributable to the provision of the authorised services.

TSCH receives the fees paid by its customers, associated with the provision of SCH-Online, as disclosed in the relevant PDS.

TSCH is not remunerated for any financial product advice that it or its representatives may provide.

TSCH and/or Pacific Custodians will retain the interest that is earned on the money held in their bank account(s) used in connection with the provision of SCH-Online.

You may request particulars of the remuneration or other benefits but that request must be made within a reasonable time after you receive this FSG and before any financial service identified in this guide is provided to you.

Apart from this, no additional remuneration is paid, or benefit provided to:

- TSCH;
- Pacific Custodians;
- an employee or director of TSCH and/or Pacific Custodians (other than normal wages and salary of employees);
- associate(s) of any of the above; or
- any other person.

Do any relationships or associations exist which might influence the financial services we provide?

TSCH is a wholly owned subsidiary of Primary Superannuation Services Pty Limited (PSS). PSS is a wholly owned subsidiary of Australian Administration Services Pty Limited (AAS). PSS and AAS are superannuation administration service providers, who are contracted to provide services for many Registrable Superannuation Entity (RSE) Licensees, who are issuers of superannuation products in their own right. TSCH has a relationship with some of those RSE Licensees, as a result of the provision of superannuation clearing house services to their participating employers. For details, please refer to the relevant PDS.

TSCH, PSS, AAS and Pacific Custodians are all members of the Link Group of companies.

For more information about the Link Group, please visit: www.linkgroup.com

TSCH may outsource some services to assist in the provision of its clearing house services.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

If you have a complaint about any of our services you can telephone us, write to us by post, fax or email, detailing your complaint. We will consider your complaint and will usually respond within 30 days. We will make all reasonable efforts to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly.

If you are not satisfied with the way your complaint is handled, or with the resolution, you may be able to lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is a free, fair and independent dispute resolution scheme that considers complaints about financial products and services. AFCA's service is offered as an alternative to tribunals and courts to resolve complaints consumers and small businesses have with their financial firms. AFCA can be contacted via the following details:

Postal Address: GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001
 Phone: 1800 931 678
 Fax: (03) 9613 6399
 Website: www.afca.org.au
 Email: info@afca.org.au

What compensation arrangements are in place?

Pacific Custodians has compensation arrangements in place, including Professional Indemnity (PI) insurance which satisfies the requirements of section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), that covers claims arising from the conduct of representatives and employees including those who no longer work for TSCH or Pacific Custodians, but who did at the time of the conduct.

The distribution of this FSG by The Superannuation Clearing House has been authorised by Pacific Custodians.
